Step 3: Create a paragraph summary of the GRASPS.

The goal is to use appropriate body language during class to show others respect and sportsmanship during class activities. You have been asked to pay attention to your body language and word choice during class. You need to convince your classmates that your words and actions are improved and positive towards others by allowing them to hear you speaking within the group in an improved manner. The challenge involves dealing with your emotions and paying attention to where your body is in space as you move through the gym. You will create a list of verbal choices for use in situations when you have the need to say something to the group. Your peers will judge your word choices. Your product must meet the standards created on your task card of verbal choices. Your performance needs to improve over time as shown on the completed PE task card, demonstrating appropriate body language during class.
